

Military Ball Queen

Miss Mary Kay Farrell, a sophomore from San Angelo, Texas, was crowned Queen of the 1960 Military Ball on Wednesday Night at the Officers Club at Bolling Air Force Base.

Marcy Kray is a music major in piano and is being initiated into Sigma Alpha Iota, Beta Phi Chapter, University-wide fraternities on Dec. 12.

The 18-year-old, brown-haired soul is a member of the Columbia Club, Alger Night, and the University Chorus. She also worked on Freshmen Orientation this past year. She was also a candidate for Queen of the Sophomore Section in September.

Warry Day

Other exhibitors for the title of Military Ball Queens included Marvin Perloff, a sophomore from Kansas, Pa., and a member of the Cadet Corps; Connie Nagle, a junior psychology major from Hartford, Conn.; a member of Theta Phi Alpha and chairman of last year's Military Ball; Vicki Coffer, a junior education major from Maryland; and a member of the YU2025 staff; and Tracy Isakson, a junior sociology major from Silver Spring, Md., and a member of the Omicron Chi, and treasurer of Student Defeating Society.

Chairmen of the dinner were Janet Burrows, Jack McCutlip, and Mickey Brink.

Is charge of publicity were James Fegredo and Maggi Whalen; quon chairman, Ben Costello; programs, Peggy Deane; and tickets, Carolyn Pulus and Elvira Ocasio.

The dust was re-generated by a dust blower and a 200°C

Angel Flight and AFDOT.
But Smith is overwhelmed at Official rosters for the Queens and her crew were: Tom Ransom, executive; Mary Kay Farber; Al Sperry, executive; Marvin Yelish; Jim Rooker, executive; Clyde Sagle; Paul Murphy, executive; Tucker Carter; and Bob Strickland, executive. Truly Jackson.

Oxford Professor Lectures Tuesday

Oxford professor Charles L. Wrenn will give a lecture next Tuesday at 3:00 in the Student Center. His topic will be "Archaeology and Anthropology in Egypt."

Prof. Wilson is Hartmann and Fenwick's professor of Anglo-Saxon at Oxford, and a fellow of

Among the invited guests will be heads of English departments at area universities.

Following the lecture there will be a reception for invited guests, and faculty members, graduate students, and junior and senior undergraduates in English.

EXTRA

This is advance notice of coming attractions! Of course, the Phi Kappa Theta-Theta Phi Alpha sponsored Banquet will be held January 13, 1981. Some of the stars will be Rhododendron Pine House. Among the added attractions will be an election of a TREASURER, but more about this next week.

山天圖

As a service project of the club, all seniors are asked to bring a Christmas gift or monetary donation to be given to poor and less fortunate families. Seniors, come with a gift, but COME...

Chl. lets P., not to be outdone in seasonal cheer, will hold its annual Christmas dance December 17, in the Victory Room of the Ambassador Hotel. The club will spend its "Holy Hock Night," December 24, going caroling around campus with Nigma F. Della.

leg around campus with Nigma F. Datta.

...at the TOWER office. Deadline—January 30, 1964.

A Navy Officer Candidates School Information Team will be on campus December 12 thru the 15th, to interview anyone interested in obtaining a commission in the United States Navy.

view another interested in soliciting a commitment to the United States Navy. The Navy Team will have a display in McMillan Hall on Monday and Wednesday, December 12 and 14, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.; and at the Student Center on Tuesday and Thursday, December 13 and 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., and will have information on all Navy Officers Programs. The Officer Qualification Test may be taken either during the visit or campus or in another

—What Do You Most Want the United States To Do At Home

"What Do You Most Want the United States To Do At Home And Abroad In The Future?" is the title of an essay contest sponsored by the American Broadcasting Media Network. The contest sponsored by the American Broadcasting Radio Network. We are seeking in special to all university and college radio stations. Those in close contact with the winners' participation in coverage of Presidential Election Kennedy's Inauguration Day, the contest runs through December 28. Each contestant may submit any number of entries, each with a maximum of 400 words. The winners, one boy and one girl, will be flown to New York on January 28th to lunch with industry leaders, view the UN and meet officials there, attend a Broadway hit and participate in other events. For further information and contest rules, come to the WOMEN's office in Afler Hall.